Statement of complainant P.O. Jacqueline Talley #17489, Unit 701 – Page Two

DEL VALLE: This stems from an incident that occurred at the parking lot behind the First District, is this correct?
[REDACTED] Yes.

DEL VALLE: Can you explain the circumstances of what occurred on 22 January 12 at the First District parking lot?

[REDACTED] I entered the building. Officer Mangan was coming down the stairs. I asked her did she put 2 of my magazines in her bag by mistake. She replied she had not checked her bags and that I could come to her vehicle where she could check to see if they were there. I replied OK. We went to her vehicle, which was the 2nd vehicle from the entrance to the driving lane. She had personal items in one hand, and her duty belt in the other. Her weapon was secured in the holster on her duty belt. She took her key out and pressed the button which opened the back hatch automatically. She put her bag and duty belt in the trunk. She then unholstered her weapon out of the holster. During that time, she was telling me she was assigned to O'Hare Airport, and she had to drive out there. She began to look for the magazines in the rear of her vehicle-first thru the passenger side door. She called me over to the rear passenger door to show me a magazine, and I told her that was not it. I then stepped back to the rear of the vehicle while she walked past me. She then went to the drivers side rear door and looked there. After looking there, she came back to me to tell me she did not have the magazines. The whole time, she had her weapon in her hand, with the barrel pointing towards me. When she told me she did not have the magazines, I said to her "Why do you have your weapon in your hand?" She then replied "Oh.", like she didn't realize she had it in her hand. The way it was pointed at me, I could have been shot in the stomach. I then went upstairs and told the Watch Commander what had occurred. He instructed me to prepare a To-From report about what had occurred. I did that, turned it in to him, and went to my post.

DEL VALLE: Do you have a copy of the To-From report you were instructed to prepare that you can forward to Internal Affairs as part of this investigation?

DEL VALLE: Did anyone else witness this incident?

[REDACTED] There were other officers walking by, but nobody specifically.

DEL VALLE: Is there anything you wish to add to this statement?

[REDACTED] No.
